

Ghost

ECHOES OF A LIFE

June

2nd-10th

Lamb's House,
Burgess Street,
Leith

An original concept of installation performance set in a mythical, futuristic version of old Leith.

Written by Judith Adams
and directed by Symon Macintyre

Promenade Show
(45 minutes)

12pm - 7pm
arrive anytime

£5 tickets on the door or in advance from Traverse Theatre 0131 228 1404

www.ghost-web.org info: 0131 554 8923

Ghost

ECHOES OF A LIFE

Ghost is a gripping drama set in a mythical, futuristic version of old Leith. The performance begins as soon as you arrive at Lamb's House, slip on your headphones and enter the unsettling world of 'The Maker'.

Inspired by the Daedalus myth, Ghost takes you on a journey littered with intriguing echoes of lives and events, through a landscape which is at once familiar and hauntingly strange. As you explore the labyrinth of streets around Leith's atmospheric Shore area, the mystery gradually unfolds around you as it builds inexorably to its thrilling denouement. What you discover may not be what you expect.....

Produced and directed by Symon Macintyre
Written by Judith Adams Music composed and played by Conrad Ivitsky-Molleson Sound engineered by Henrik Ekeus

Puppetlab Logo